CAMP RULES / DISCIPLINE FORM

When you arrive at Youth Helpers camp you are expected to be on your best behavior. You are responsible for your own actions; if you cannot abide by the rules, you will be sent home.

TOP YOUTH HELPERS RULES

Other rules will be discussed upon arrival at Youth Helpers Unplugged. All students are expected to abide all camp rules.

1. You will be assigned a buddy and must know where your buddy is at all times.
2. Respect other people's property. If it's not yours, don't touch it.
3. Keep track of your own property, and know where it is at all times.
4. You may not go into a cabin other than your own without counselor permission.
Girls cannot visit boy's cabins, and boys cannot visit girl cabin!

6. Clothing – NO bare midriffs, spaghetti straps, bikinis (one piece swimsuits must be worn); short shorts (shorter than arm's length) or Shirts with offensive language or pictures are allowed. Camp is fun and learning, not a fashion completion.
7. You have broken the rules if you are involved in fighting, pretend fighting, teasing, put downs, gossip or hurting another person, even if you didn't start it.
8. Show respect to nature and camp by not littering. Always walk on trails.
9. Wildlife is wild and should be left alone. Please tell a counselor or staff member if you see something, but do not touch it or chase it.
10. Stay within boundaries discussed on first day. Do not wander off!
11. NO food, gum, candy or drinks are allowed to be brought by campers.
